

School Name: School of Health Sciences

Program Name: BOTAT

Course Title: Basic Principle of Hospital Management

Course Code: BHOA-302

Semester: III

- What do you understand by the term management?
- What are the applications of MBO?
- Explain the principle of hospital planning.
- Define the term mortuary along with its two examples.
- What do you understand by the term medico legal case?

- Explain the importance of management in a hospital.
- Explain the different types of equipment used in hospital for patient treatment.
- Elaborate the maintenance of equipment in a hospital.
- Explain the applications of waste management in a hospital
- Write a short note on the performance appraisal. Elaborate the different types of motivation of human being along with its limitations.
- Describe the structure, methods, applications and functions of hospital and applications of cath lab.
- Define the term health care.
- Explain the principle of hospital planning.
- Give the flow chart of inpatient service used in hospital.
- What are the factors which affecting the inventory management of human being?
- Give the functions of TQM.
- Explain the evolution of management along with its diagram.
- What are the guidelines for the individual behavior in organization?
- Elaborate the layout of hospital along with its limitations.
- Explain the role of financial institutions in a hospital.
- Write a short note on the performance appraisal.
- Discuss the block diagram of perception along with its applications.
- Describe the building layout of hospital along with its limitations.

- Discuss the different methods of health insurance along with its applications and functions.